

Denise
Jabbour

Biography

Denise Jabbour is a Producer/Executive Producer from Beirut, Lebanon. She received her degree from Holly Spirit University – Kaslik, Lebanon & eventually earned her spot as agency producer at TBWA/RAAD Dubai – United Arab Emirates, handling prints, radios & TVC productions for many prestigious brands.

After few years career as a producer there, she decided it was time for a change, so she moved back to Beirut – Lebanon to work more on story telling, where she worked as a production manager on two Arabic webdrama ‘Shankaboot’ (won best webseries at the Geneva International Film Festival in 2010 and the International Emmy Award in Cannes 2011) produced by Batoota Films in association with the BBC trust funds & ‘Fasateen’ (won The Grand Prix Du Jury at Marseille Film Festival), produced by Batoota Films in association with Yahoo-Maktoob. Since 2009 till present time, she has been handling Middle East productions for Visionaire Media & Layalina Productions, working on American Caravan, Injaz, Trading Places & On The Road In America.

Through it all, she has been enjoying life fully, learning from an adventure to another, working with amazing partners, surrounded by a passionate crew & most of all – at the end of each journey – delivering a beautiful story to the viewer’s life.